PICKETT OUT FOR CONGRESS

Opponents of Congressman Helm To Make Fight With Prominent Shelby County Democrat

Opponents of Congressman Harvey Helm in this district, have everything greased for the entry of Hon. George Pickett, a brother of Mrs. William Severance of this city, into the race, as the only opponent of the present congressman. A dispatch from Shelbyville, Pickett's home, Tuesday said that Judge Ralph Gilbert, of Shelby county, who has been mentioned as a probable candidate, has announced that he will not make the race. The dispatch then said:

When advised that Judge Gilbert was out of the race, Mr. Pickett at once decided to enter and authorized the statement that the formal announcement of his candidacy will appear in the papers of the district this week. He said, moreover, that he expected to win it. In this sanguine expectation, Judge Gilbert, who has made a partial canvass of the district and a thorough study of existing conditions, heartily coincides and he cheerfully pledged Mr. Pickett his full support and whatever influence he may possess. Mr. Pickett served two terms as County Attorney and is now the member from Shelby in the lower house of the general assembly, in which he has taken high rank as the chairman of the committee on railroads and a member of the committee on rules, in addition to other important committee assignments not usually accorded representatives in their first term. Pickett is a close cousin of Gov. Stanley.

Can't Muster the Courage

The Nicholasville News commenting upon the effort to get out opposition to Congressman Helm had this to say, last week:

Tom Cromwell in the Cincinnati Enquirer says that "certain influential democrats" opposed to Congressman Helm of the Eighth district, are trying to get the decks cleared of other would-be-candidates so that they can pit Hon. George L. Pickett of Shelby, single-handed against Mr. Helm. At the same time the Danville Advocate, always hunting for a man to run "single-handed against Mr. Helm," says that "certain influential democrats" are trying to get William Jennings Price to resign as minister to Panama, and come home and undertake the task of beating Helm, as Gen. Garnett, after canvassing the situation, the Advocate's first suggestion, declines to try it. As Price and Pickett are both personal and political friends of young Ralph Gilbert, of Shelby, who still says that he wants to run, and has Pickett's support pledged, it would seem the task of selecting some one to "beat Helm" presents all of the same old difficulties, and would require another "Victoria hotel meeting," even if one has not been already held. The boys who really have congressional ambitions, had better lay low, watch the politicians, all secret meetings, conferences, etc., and bide a wee. This is a year of RE-nominations in the democratic party in and out of this state, and everybody from the President down will be given renominations, practically without opposition.

RECOMMENDS INSURANCE CO.

I heartily recommend to the insuring public the Reliance Life Insurance Company of Pittsburgh. I am carrying a health policy with this company and during my three months' sickness they have paid me promptly and it gives me pleasure to recommend them to you. Talk to Jesse D. Wearan, their local agent.—Coe H. Moser, Stanford.

CONNECTION WITH OTTENHEIM

Manager Jordan of the local telephone exchange announces that the connection between the local plant and the Farmers' Home Telephone Company, of Ottenheim, has been completed and that local patrons can now get free service to Ottenheim. This was formerly a toll service.

THE GIST OF IT.

"Last December I had a very severe cold and was nearly down sick in bed. I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a very few days until I was completely restored to health," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. If you would know the value of this remedy, ask anyone who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

MIDDLETON—GOODWIN

Popular Young Couple of East End Marry Saturday Evening.

The wedding of Miss Annie Middleton and Walter Goodwin, at Crab Orchard at the home of the bride Saturday evening came as a surprise to their host of friends in the East End, and elsewhere. Both are very young people and they are being kept busy receiving congratulations and good wishes of their many friends. The bride is the very attractive, accomplished daughter of Mrs. Sim Middleton. For several years she has been an efficient and popular member of the staff of the Crab Orchard telephone office, and through her unflinching courtesy, politeness and sweet disposition, has made a wide circle of friends and admirers. Mr. Goodwin is a junior member, with his father as the senior member, of the Crab Orchard Bottling Works, and is frequently in Stanford and over the county in the interest of his business. He is a hustling and prominent young business man, and in every way deserving of the splendid helpmate he has won.

The Bonny Bride.

The wedding was performed at the home of the bride in Crab Orchard in the presence of only a few friends and loved ones. Rev. J. H. Rogers, pastor of the Preachersville Baptist church, said the words which made the happy pair one, after which a delightful wedding supper was served to the bridal party at the home of the groom's parents.

CHURCH NOTES.

Presbyterian Church, Mid-Week service Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. Come and study with us the Character of Abraham.

LATEST WAR NEWS

Beset on the north, east and west by Auto-Hungarian armies, Montenegro has asked Austria for peace, and her request has been granted. The unconditional laying down of arms by Montenegro was made the basis of the opening of peace negotiations, and Montenegro accepted the terms imposed by the dual monarchy. This is the first withdrawal of any belligerent from any of the alliances that have been fighting with each other since August, 1914.

In their drive along a front of nearly 100 miles in the Caucasus, the Russians have won additional advantage from the Turks, suffering heavy casualties.

The English army coming northward from the Persian gulf to the relief of the British forces at Kut-El-Amara, has driven the Turks to within six miles of the beleaguered town on the Tigris.

Entente allied troops have landed at Phaleron, a port five miles southwest of Athens, according to a semi-official dispatch from Berlin. German newspapers say this is in preparation to an attempt to overthrow King Constantine.

The proposal of Great Britain to establish a blockade against German ports, it is stated, is approached with delicacy in the state department as calculated to arouse an anti-British feeling in Congress. It is claimed that France and Italy reluctantly agreed to the idea that Great Britain should dictate as to the commerce of European neutrals with the teutonic allies.

NEW BOOKS FOR LIBRARY.

The Woman's Club which did such splendid work in organizing the public library for Stanford, is preparing to add some new volumes to the list and has issued the following statement to those interested. Those holding library cards are requested to give to the librarian a list of books they would like to see in the library. New books are to be ordered at once, and those most desirable will be selected from this list before ordering.

HIGH BID OF $220 PER YEAR

Wins Honor of City Depository for Lincoln County National Bank

At an adjourned meeting of the City Council last Friday night, the Lincoln County National Bank was selected as the depository of the funds belonging to the City of Stanford, after spirited bidding with the First National Bank. J. Welch Rochester, assistant cashier of the successful institution, was elected City Treasurer for a term of two years. The Lincoln County National Bank bid the sum of $220 annually for the city's deposits, $4 higher than the last bid of the First National. The salary of the City Treasurer is $50 per year. Considerable interest was manifested in the friendly rivalry which was displayed in the matter, and a good sized crowd was present when the Council convened and asked for bids from the two institutions. President J. S. Hocker acted for his bank, while A. T. Nunneley, a director of the successful bidder, did the bidding for his institution. The City Fathers and others feel that they made a good bargain on behalf of the taxpayers in securing such a satisfactory sum for the use of the taxpayers' money, while officers of the successful bank take pride in the fact that their institution is now the official city depository as well as the county depository.

BUYS FINE FAYETTE FARM

Frank Hill, of Wayne county, who is a kinsman of several prominent Lincoln county people, has just purchased "Pinewood," the handsome farm of James A. Eastin, four miles from Lexington on the Paris pike. The Lexington Leader says that the farm is one of the show places of Fayette county containing 135 acres. Mr. and Mrs. Hill will occupy their new home February 1st and Mr. Hill will transfer his cattle raising and feeding operations to his new home. The price was not made public but is understood to have been a big figure. Mrs. Hill is a daughter of the late J. Oatts, of Wayne, who was one of the biggest mule dealers and farmers in the south in his day.

FELL AND BROKE HIS NOSE

Frank Phillips, of the firm of Phillips & Phillips, fractured the bridge bone of his nose when he slipped and fell on the icy pavement in front of Carter's livery stable on Main street Sunday morning. It was very cold, and Mr. Phillips was walking along with his hands in his pockets, which prevented his catching and saving himself from the nasty fall which he sustained. He will be laid up for several days with his injuries.

SCHOOL BURNS AT CORBIN.

The West Side city school building at Corbin was burned down about 5 o'clock Friday night. The origin of the fire is not known. Only a few seats and no furniture were saved. The building was a two-story frame, nine rooms, valued at $4,000, partly covered by insurance. Nine teachers will be out of employment until arrangements are made.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

The regular weekly program was given Friday morning. Those taking part were: Piano, Duet, Eddie Bruce Baughman and Lucille Walker; Recitation, "Grin and Bear It," Shelton Saufley, Jr.; Reading, "The Drink," Robert Baughman; Piano Solo, Margaret Shanks; Reading, Peach Pie, Mary Gaines. The primary grades down at the college had an oratorical contest and Shelton M. Saufley, Jr., won, reciting the same piece he gave in chapel.

Will McCormack, who is very ill at his home, is a member of the present Sophomore class, and the entire High School are hoping for a speedy recovery.

Those absent Monday were: Class '16, Prescott Brown, Jesse Hocker, Lewis Proctor, Lucy Wilmot, Effie Ware, Lucille Dudderar, Elizabeth Staggs; Class '17, Anna Green Wood, Class '18, D. S. Holman, Will and Bessie McCormack; Class '19, Walter Browning, Sara Cormney, Ruby Hilton, Robert Holtzclaw, May Belle Lyons and Sara Sampson.

CONSTIPATION AND INDIGESTION.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Obtainable everywhere.

UNCLE HARDIN YOWELL DEAD

Prominent Old Citizen and Democrat of Marion Succumbs

"Uncle Hardin" Yowell, aged 93 years, a widely known citizen of Marion county, residing near Bradfordsville, and a kinsman of the Yowell family in the West End of Lincoln, died at his home late Sunday afternoon following an illness of several weeks. Death was due to the infirmities of age hastened by a stroke of paralysis which he sustained some weeks ago. He had been dangerously ill for several days and his death was not unexpected. All of his children were at the bedside when he died.

"Uncle Hardin," as he was familiarly known, had lived in Marion county all of his life, having been born and reared there. He was the second oldest man in that county. He was well known and widely related throughout this section of the state. "Uncle Hardin" was a staunch democrat and enjoyed the distinction of never having scratched his party's ticket from constable to president. His wife died a number of years ago. Surviving are four sons R. H. Yowell, J. J. Yowell, J. Q. Yowell and William M. Yowell, the latter chief of police of Lebanon for many years, and one daughter, Mrs. T. T. Blandford, of Louisville. The funeral was held Tuesday, burial being in Old Liberty cemetery a short distance from his home.

DIED IN LOUISVILLE

As the I. J. went to press Tuesday news was received from Louisville of the death there of Mrs. Jane Harris, who leaves many relatives here. Mrs. W. W. Saunders received a telegram stating that the remains will be brought here for interment, with short services at the grave. Further details of her demise will be given in Friday's issue.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

R. S. Garnett, an insurance agent of Owenton, had the tip of an ear bitten off by a horse one morning last week.

Before the end of 1916 the Jews of America expect to raise $5,000,000 for the help of the millions of Jewish sufferers through the war.

Judge J. Pink Thompson, aged 76, one of the oldest and best known attorneys at the Lebanon bar, died at his home in Lebanon following a long illness.

Messrs. J. F. Ostts and M. D. Shearer returned home last week from Georgia where they had sold three car loads of mules.—Monticello Outlook.

Mr. Joe E. Shadoan has gone South with a carload of mules.... Judge W. R. Cress has gone to Tennessee to be treated by the Negro doctor.—Monticello Outlook.

Following the suicide of S. J. Welles, cashier of the bank at Dundee, Ohio county, a shortage of $4,300 is said to have been found by state bank examiners.

Attorney G. E. Stone, of Danville, came here Sunday to look after his brother, Attorney J. B. Stone, who suffered another stroke of paralysis a few weeks ago and is very feeble.—Monticello Outlook.

Miss Dovie Shepherd, a student in the Kentucky School for the Deaf at Danville, died at that institution as a result of an attack of pneumonia. She lived at Corbin and her remains were taken there for burial.

Henry Brierly, 68 years old, was found guilty by a jury in the Henry Circuit Court of the murder of Leonard Pollard, a youth of 20, at Lockport, in 1905, and sentenced to serve eight years in the penitentiary.

Among the new corporations which filed papers with the Secretary of State at Frankfort last week was the Beasley Garrett Tobacco Company, capital $15,000; incorporators, C. C. Wallace, R. N. Beasley and William L. Wallace.

Fletcher Deaton's appeal to the supreme court for a review of his conviction and sentence to life imprisonment for the murder of Ed Callahan in 1912 in Breathitt was dismissed at Washington last week because of Deaton's failure to print the record in his case. Deaton had sought to have the record printed at government expense on a plea of poverty.

WOMEN OF SEDENTARY HABITS

Women who get but little exercise are likely to be troubled with constipation and indigestion and will find Chamberlain's Tablets rightly beneficial. Not so good as a three or four mile walk every day, but very much better than to allow the bowels to remain in a constipated condition. They are easy and pleasant to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

NEW CITY ATTORNEY

HON. T. J. HILL, Jr.

Stanford's new City Attorney, just elected for the ensuing term by the City Fathers, is one of the best known young attorneys in this part of the state, and one of the most popular at the local bar. Mr. Hill has enjoyed ample experience in all of the courts, to qualify him in every way to take care of the city's legal business and prosecutions and to advise the City Councilmen regarding legal matters of any sort can be depended upon to always be at his post of duty and thoroughly posted on all questions having to do with the legal affairs of the municipality.

SELLS OUT AT HARRODSBURG

Ed Walton Sells the Leader to W. O. McIntyre and Associates

Much surprise was occasioned among his host of friends here when news came from Harrodsburg early in the week that Ed C. Walton had sold the Harrodsburg Leader, which he bought only a couple of weeks ago, to Owen McIntyre, Arthur W. Timoney and A. E. Hundley, of Danville. Mr. Walton and family are already back in Stanford and their friends hope they will never leave here again. Mr. Walton has a business deal in view here, which caused him to sell out at Harrodsburg. He still thinks that Stanford is the very best town on the map and hopes to locate here permanently. The new owners of the Advocate, with the exception of Mr. Hundley are well known newspapermen, Mr. McIntyre being the junior editor of the Danville Advocate and in active charge of that paper while senior editor W. V. Richardson, has been in Washington as the private secretary to Senator Ollie James.

McKINNEY.

Little Alice Marie Smith is reported sick with grip.

Mrs. W. M. McClure is visiting her mother at Pine Knot.

Mrs. Amelia Montgomery is reported suffering from grip.

We are pleased to note that Mr. W. C. Toombs and family have recently become residents of our little town.

Pay your city taxes now and give the city fathers a chance to do some improving on our streets.

Mrs. A. H. Davison is able to be out again after an attack of the grip.

Our friend and neighbor, Johnnie Sluder says he is strong for preparedness, so he is building a garage in town for all the auto users—so come by, tank up, light up and get fixed up.

A special meeting of McKinney Lodge, No. 631, F. & A. M., was held at the lodge rooms on December 27, where an abundant supply of refreshments had been provided by an efficient committee consisting of A. H. Davison, E. J. Tanner and W. J. Duncan, consisting of lots of good things to eat. The lodge was then called to order and the following officers elected for the ensuing year: Worshipful Master, A. H. Davison; Senior Warden, Price Butler; Junior Warden, A. W. Brown; Senior Deacon, Dr. J. B. Smith, Junior Deacon, Wm. Montgomery; Treasurer, E. J. Tanner; Secretary, Cleo Thomas.

Mrs. J. W. Cocking is quite ill suffering with the grip, complicated by malaria.

BAD COLD QUICKLY BROKEN UP

Mrs. Martha Wilcox, Gowanda, N. Y., writes: "I first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy about eight years ago. At that time I had a hard cold and coughed most of the time. It proved to be just what I needed. It broke up the cold in a few days, and the cough entirely disappeared. I have told many of my friends of the good I received through using this medicine, and all who have used it speak of it in the highest terms." Obtainable everywhere.

KILLING OVER IN GARRARD

Old Grudge Said to Have Been Responsible for Shooting Affray Near Cartersville.

Lancaster, Ky., Jan. 17.

The killing last week at Cartersville, Garrard county, is said by officials who have investigated the matter to have been the result of an old grudge between Bynum Carter VanWinkle and his brother-in-law, Bert Wilson, a Rockcastle county resident. When VanWinkle saw Wilson and two other men passing along the road, it is alleged he opened fire on them, Ed Ballard receiving a wound from which he died the next morning at the Berea hospital. Wilson is also reported seriously wounded with a probability that he will die.

Ed Ballard, the man killed by VanWinkle, was 19 years old, unmarried and the son of George Ballard of the Cartersville vicinity.

Bynum Carter VanWinkle escaped after he had shot two of the three men passing his home, and, so far, Garrard officials have not been able to locate him, the impression being that he has fled the country. He is about 17 years old and belongs to the same VanWinkle family that took part in a shooting affair at Cartersville some five or six years ago. The story told by VanWinkle's friends is, that the three passers-by first opened fire on him, the shots not taking effect; he at once rushed into the house, and, securing his gun, was soon giving them a full charge of return bullets, with the above final result.

Kinnaird—Ford

Miss Patsy Kinnaird, younger daughter of Dr. J. B. Kinnaird, and Elijah Ford, son of former county Judge A. D. Ford, of this city, were married this (Tuesday) morning, at the home of the bride's parents in Hill Court, the ceremony being pronounced at 10 o'clock. The young bride graduated two years ago from the Lancaster High School, while the groom is a capable young business man of this place, he and his brother being engaged in farming, while he has other business interests. After a bridal trip, the young couple will be "at home" at the Ford residence on Richmond avenue.

Without a single exception every director of the three banking institutions of Lancaster was re-elected at the stockholders' sessions held at the various bank offices. All of these banks are in a flourishing condition, each having declared its regular dividends, beside carrying a good amount to the surplus fund. The Citizen's National holds the distinction of being on the honor roll, its capital and surplus being the same, $50,000. Stock in this financial institution recently sold for $200 per share. The National Bank, the oldest bank of Lancaster, has a surplus of $30,000, and undivided profits of $8,000. Its capital stock is $50,000. The Garrard Bank and Trust Company, the youngest financial firm of the city, is growing in popularity and ability every year, and beside paying its usual dividend carried $2,000 to its surplus fund, which now amounts to $8,000.

At the latter half of the season advances, the bulk of Garrard tobacco is reaching the market, and proves to be the more superior grade of the Burley leaf, the wealthier class of Garrard farmers having no reason to rush their weed to the breaks, as they possess satisfactory bank accounts and hence are not forced to put their crops on the floors until prices have taken an upward tendency. Some sensational figures have been reported within the past few days. D. N. and Emmett Long having teamed their crops to the Madison County Capital and effected satisfactory sales, the former receiving the high average of $28.91 per hundred, while the latter was compensated at an average price of $24.39 per hundred for his output of burley. Joe Wheeler and D. Adkinson have also indicated that they are successful tobacco growers, as their crops brought over the $20 mark.

At a called meeting of the City Council, the deadlock on here for several weeks was broken by Mayor L. G. Davidson casting the deciding vote for Orville Buck, the present Chief of Police, to be re-elected, and also for him to serve as Superintendent of the Waterworks. H. T. Logan, disqualified for further service by moving beyond the city limits, Mr. Wesley Zanone was chosen to serve in his place.

J. Y. Robinson has returned to Georgia for the remainder of the winter.
